CONSTITUTION.

1. NAME.

This organization shall be called "The Massachusetts Library Club."

2. OBJECT.

Its object shall be to promote the library interests of the States of Massachusetts and Rhode Island.

3. MEMBERS.

Any librarian, library assistant, or trustee of a library in the States of Massachusetts and Rhode Island may become a member upon payment of the annual assessment, and remain a member as long as dues are paid. Other persons interested in library work may, with the consent of the Executive Committee, become members on the same terms. Any person eligible to membership may become a life member and be exempt from future assessments on the payment of $5.00. The money received for life membership shall be safely invested and only the interest shall be spent.

4. OFFICERS.

The officers of the Club shall consist of a President, two Vice-Presidents, a Secretary, and a Treasurer, to be elected by ballot at the annual meeting, who shall together constitute the Executive Committee, and serve till their successors are chosen.

5. MEETINGS.

There shall be two or more meetings of the Club in each year, one of which shall be the annual meeting to be held the first Wednesday in October, provided that the date of the annual meeting may be changed in any year when all the members of the Executive Committee so agree.

6. DUES AND DEBTS.

The annual assessment shall be fifty (50) cents. No debt or obligation of any kind shall be contracted by the Club, or by any committee, officer, or member thereof on its behalf.

7. AMENDMENTS.

This constitution may be amended by three-fourths vote of those present at any stated meeting, notice of the proposed change having been given in the call for the meeting.

The Constitution was adopted Nov. 13, 1890. Amendments were adopted to Art. II, Dec. 14, 1894; to Art. III, July 8, 1891, Dec. 16, 1891, Dec. 14, 1894; to Art. V, July 8, 1891, January 24, 1894.
